

Leatherhead Bowling Club

Newsletter Issue 9

NEWS

- URGENT: SATURDAY'S LEAGUE MATCHES AND THAT AGAINST BROCKHAM ON TUESDAY ARE CANCELLED
- Chrystie League selected teams are shown on the club noticeboard as is next Friday's mixed match against Epsom Park
- The Barham Triples numbers have reached 42 and the 6 teams of 5 and two of 6 will be drawn this weekend. The captains will then contact each of their team members by email requesting confirmation of availability to allow selection for the 14 matches giving all an even spread of opportunities with a minimum of 6 – the captains are David and Sue Lokkerbol, Clive Kendall, Dave Telfer, Desta Dickenson, Anne Collett, Chris and Steve Little
- In the Surrey's Sue Lokkerbol and Anne Collett lost to Sutton but put up a good fight as did the men's fours team to the outstanding Old Coulsdon team full of county badge holders and multiple past winners. Sue and David lost 22-17 in the Surrey Mixed Pairs after a courageous comeback left them with just too much to do
- In the Ladies' Surrey Fours there was a win against Cheam Fields by 24-8 for Angie Kendall, Carole Telfer, Sarah Campbell and Chris Little – in the next round they play another team from Cheam Fields
- A big thanks to Sue for organising the club Fours last Saturday with her team and that of Ray Dawson qualifying for their final on the Club Finals' Day
- Our men's teams in the West Surrey Midweek League and Chrystie League sit in first and second places respectively
- We have currently won 10 out of 14 club friendly matches

MATCHES

The Club results have been as follows:

- On Friday the Men's Midweek League match was another victory this time against top of the table Merrow
- We won the Mixed match at Ottershaw on Sunday by 60-55
- On Monday the men thrashed Bookham 41-10 in the Chrystie League to earn the full 4 points
- The Ladies started their Surrey Advertiser campaign win for one team beating Dorking 29-9 and the other team of losing narrowly to Ashted 20-17
- On Thursday a Men's team beat a mixed Ewhurst Mixed team by 61-52

FORTHCOMING MATCHES

Friday July 2nd - the Men play in the West Surrey Midweek League away to Ashtead (one rink) – 6.15pm

Monday 5th – the Men play Pippbrook at home (two rinks) in the Chrystie – 6.15pm – this is first v second in the league

Thursday 8th - Ladies play Bookham at home in the Surrey Advertiser competition (one rink) – 2.30pm - plus two other rinks in a friendly against Bookham

Friday July 9th – Mixed home match against Epsom Park – three rinks – 2.30pm

Friday July 9th – Men’s West Surrey Midweek League home to Knaphill (one rink) – 6.15pm

Saturday 10th – The ‘Fish n’ Chips Drive – 2.30pm start

COACHING

Please remember that our coaches are available to help you. Sue Lokkerbol, Chris and I all benefited from Terry Dickenson’s coaching this week on how we grip, deliver, our stance, the amount of weight and other very helpful guidance. So, I can recommend Terry’s help to you all - Steve

MEMBER’S TRIVIA

Any ideas?

- Which club member has his own coat of arms? Graham Portwine

- Which club member was on the playing staff of Fulham FC alongside football greats, Johnny Haynes and Bobby Robson? John Dean played for Fulham Reserves and moved on to top amateur football with the likes of Tooting and Mitcham and Sutton United

MARKER’S GUIDANCE

In a separate document Rob will be including a guidance note for all experienced and members new to the job of marking – please read, learn and inwardly digest!!

Happy reading and please continue to enjoy your bowls! Steve